

British Columbia Expropriation Association

2005 FALL SEMINAR

INTRODUCTION:

The British Columbia Expropriation Association is pleased to announce the 13th Annual Fall Seminar. This seminar is a key component of staying connected in the field, obtaining up-to-date information, establishing and maintaining personal and professional relationships. We have excellent speakers on a variety of interesting topics. This seminar is very popular so register early to ensure your attendance.

DATES:

Friday, October 28, 2005

Saturday, October 29, 2005

★★ NEW LOCATION ★★

Crowne Plaza Hotel Georgia
801 West Georgia Street
Vancouver, British Columbia

8:00 AM REGISTRATION AND
CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST*9:00 AM WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

The Master of Ceremonies for this year's conference is James Goulden of Bull Housser & Tupper LLP, Vancouver.

9:15 AM Use & Occupation of Municipal Land
by Telecommunications Carriers:
Expropriation Without Compensation?

Does the Telecommunications Act authorize de facto expropriation of municipal land without compensation? Can the Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunications Commission (CRTC) set aside a contract providing for compensation to a municipality so that a telecommunications carrier may occupy and use municipal land without payment? This session will provide an update on developments since the 2001 decision of the CRTC in Ledcor Industries Limited v. City of Vancouver.

Patsy Scheer, City of Vancouver, Vancouver

10:15 AM BREAK10:45 AM Interest-based Property Negotiation

This session will give a general introduction to a process for negotiating, based on the science of decision-making and the art of negotiation. It provides a context for the systemic use of communication skills and conflict resolution practices. This is an essential strategy for those who need to resolve difficult emotions and conflicting agendas when dealing with reluctant negotiating partners. It is applicable to a wide range of problems, including property acquisitions, administrative and policy issues and interpersonal conflicts at work and at home.

Terry S. Neiman, Neiman and Associates, Vancouver
