

2016 FALL CONFERENCE

The British Columbia Expropriation Association invites you to attend our 24th Annual Fall Conference. We have assembled a lineup of excellent presenters to provide you with continuing education, practical guidance, and updates on a variety of expropriation and related topics. You will also have numerous opportunities to network with others who are engaged in the acquisition and expropriation of land for public purposes. This event is always popular so register early to ensure your attendance.

This year, the Association is also offering two engaging seminars that will take place in parallel on the day before the Conference. In one session, a local panel of practitioners will host a seminar aimed at professionals who are new to expropriation process and procedure, and those interested in a refresher on the principles of expropriation. The second session is designed for senior practitioners with interest in advanced concepts in large-scale infrastructure project planning.

THURSDAY - October 27, 2016

1:30-4:00pm

Advanced Project Planning

Projects of every size benefit from strategic project planning and tools. Come and learn from experienced practitioners who have managed projects involving challenging issues such as securing government funding, obtaining regulatory approvals, and acquiring the necessary property interests.

1:30-4:00pm

Expropriation 101

Doug Fourchalk, DM Fourchalk Property Consultants Inc.; Sean Hughes, Kent-Macpherson Inc. and Tim Quirk, BC Ministry of Justice

Mr. Fourchalk (land agent), Mr. Hughes (appraiser), and Mr. Quirk (lawyer) will give a high-level overview of projects that involve the expropriation/acquisition of land, from project conception, to construction, negotiations, and claims for compensation. The panel will canvass the roles of various professionals at different stages of a project, and the perspectives of both the expropriating authority and landowner.

A networking reception will follow the Thursday seminars from 4:00 - 5:30pm.
