10:30 AM - 11:30 AM

EXPROPRIATION LAW THROUGH THE APPRAISAL LENS

Brett Garnett, Garnett Wilson Realty Advisors Ltd., & Tim Quirk, BC Ministry of Attorney General

A body of case law has developed in BC about the conduct of appraisers and/or their opinions in various contexts. Messrs. Garnett and Phan will identify and unpack seminal expropriation cases that are critical for every appraiser to know and understand.

11:30 AM - 12:15 PM

CITY OF SURREY ON THE RISE

Bill Aujla, President & CEO, Surrey City Development Corporation

The City of Surrey is one of Canada's fastest-growing cities and the Surrey City Development Corporation (SCDC) has a central role in shaping its future. Mr. Aujla will provide an overview of SCDC, its mandate, and unique development approach through strategic partnerships with the private sector. Mr. Aujla will discuss how SCDC is helping to accelerate Surrey's vision of vibrant, sustainable, and transit-oriented communities, and he will share insights into the key development opportunities that will transform Surrey's urban landscape.

WHAT GIS CAN DO FOR YOU

Scott Piet, GIS Manager, LandSolutions

With over a decade of experience supporting land acquisition, infrastructure, and right-of-way projects, Mr. Piet will demonstrate how geographic information systems (GIS) help keep project teams, landowners, and stakeholders informed and aligned. Using examples from land acquisition and expropriation projects, Mr. Piet will highlight how GIS technology supports faster decision making, improves project delivery, and adds greater transparency throughout the project lifecycle.

Friday, October 23rd, 2026, Continued

2:00 PM - 3:00 PM

"WHOSE LAND IS IT ANYWAY?" – RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN ABORIGINAL TITLE OVER PRIVATE LAND IN CANADA

Roy Millen & Graham Fulton,
Partners, Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP

Aboriginal title law has primarily developed in the context of Crown (government-owned) land. Recent court decisions have considered whether and how Aboriginal title applies to privately held lands, prompting broader discussions about the scope of Aboriginal rights and how to effect reconciliation properly. Messrs. Millen and Fulton will provide insights into the legal implications of these cases and also grapple with the implications of these developments for landowners, developers, lenders and other interested parties.

3:00 PM - 3:30 PM

NETWORKING BREAK

3:30 PM - 4:30 PM

AN INCOMPARABLE CAREER OF
PUBLIC SERVICE, LEADERSHIP, AND IMPACT

Glen Clark, BC Hydro

Born and raised in BC, Glen Clark's decades-long career – including first as the 31st Premier of BC and then as President of Jim Pattison Group – has made him a unique leader with insights only he could have about the operation of this province. Do not miss this fireside-style Q&A during which Mr. Clark will share glimpses of his career from public servant to private industry and more.
